

Top Reasons to Offer a Prepaid Card

Helping Credit Unions Compete

Prepaid debit cards offer a uniquely easy and safe financial management tool for your members. They also provide many benefits to your credit union.

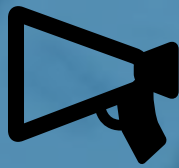

Prepaid cards give your credit union a competitive advantage, minimizes risk, and offer an ongoing income opportunity

Your members will enjoy the same benefits as a traditional card with additional convenience and security when shopping online

You can offer a low risk prepaid Visa debit card in lieu of a traditional debit or credit card program

Your credit union will be able to approach a market of members previously untapped, including members with college-age children

A prepaid card creates an ongoing relationship between your credit union and your member
